The 2nd National Conference and International Arts & Designs Exhibition “Creative - Research - Innovations : The Important Factors to Improve Thailand” which the Faculty of Fine and Applied Arts, Prince of Songkla University Pattani Campus be the host of this year’s project which is an extension of the cooperation of both public and private universities in the fields of fine arts consisting of Faculty of Fine and Applied Arts, Prince of Songkla University, Pattani Campus, Faculty of Fine and Applied Arts, Dhurakij Pundit University, Faculty of Fine and Applied Arts, Burapha University, and Faculty of Fine Arts Buditpatanasilpa Institute (Parties 4U PLUS network). There are also international organizations, art institutions and artists from overseas, both in Asia and Europe, submitting works to presentations such as Malaysia, Indonesia, Singapore, China, Republic of Korea, Taiwan, India, Italy, etc., which is an important opportunity for cognitive exchange knowledge, experience and culture in creating designs in the form of various that will be useful for academic development for creative works in the future.

This project arrangement is a forum for exchanging knowledge on research articles, academic articles, creative work, and articles for creative works between artists, faculty, students and general public which have the opportunity to present academic and creative works in all branches of fine arts contributions in other fields which has been distributed to the public. The work presented and displayed has been considered by highly qualified, experienced and national.

On behalf of Prince of Songkla University I appreciate the participants for presenting the research article, academic article, and exhibition of creative works this time. And thanks to all the operators for making the The 2nd National Conference and International Arts & Designs Exhibition to proceed smoothly with integrity and fulfilled all objectives which can modify the behavior to be in accordance with the current situation. It is a powerful collaboration in which it will continue to create a creative innovation in the fields of arts.

Assistant Professor Dr. Niwat Keawpradub
The President, Prince of Songkla University

Message from Vice President Prince of Songkla University, Pattani Campus

The cooperation of public and private universities in the fields of fine arts that manages knowledge of art and design on the 2nd National Conference and International Arts & Designs Exhibition 2020 "Creative - Research - Innovations: The Important Factors to Improve Thailand" It is a collaborative management that integrates cooperation from sectors in the academic society to create and bring creative works to be an important factor in national development into people's daily lives to people who interest in the fields of fine arts and to be creative work for the benefit of all people.

I would like to note that in the year of 2020, the world is facing an outbreak of COVID-19 which all parts are affected. The organizing of the 2nd National Conference and International Arts & Designs Exhibition may also be affected. However, there is a chance in the crisis. We live in an age where we can present and appreciate creative works without limitation of location or time anymore by taking advantage of advanced information and communication technology which is an opportunity for at least two groups that are academic workers and artists to create works will have a new channel to present their works in the academic forum including online exhibition. In the field of art lovers, they can admire the works through an academic forum or visit the expansive exhibition across the border for 24 hours.

I believe that the 2nd National Conference and International Arts & Designs Exhibition 2020, regardless of the type of activity, participants will have a good opportunity. This activity will be a gathering of many experienced people by looking at the world with a deep understanding of all dimensions of beauty and meaning to convey the conceptual view to drive the "Creative-research-innovation" is a "significant factor in national development" with interest and is evident.

Message from Dean of the Faculty of Fine and Applied Arts Dhurakij Pundit University

This year, The IADCE Event and artists' art exhibition have been held for the second time, with the cooperation of 4 institutions including with Faculty of Fine and Applied Arts Burapa Faculty of Fine and Applied Arts Dhurakij Pundit University University Faculty of Fine and Applied Arts Prince of Songkla University Pattani Campus and Faculty of Fine Arts Banditpatanasilpa Institute, as usual In the previous year, we received a lot of works, both the number of submissions and the number of institutions interested in participating.

With the organize event was very impressive and this year too, has received a large number of participants. Although this year the Covid 19 epidemic occurred, but this event was able to be. Thankfully to the Faculty of Fine Arts of 4 institutions that organize events and those who are interested in submitting work very much, because if we lack them this event would not have happened.

Finally, I would like to express my most gratitude to the hosts for this year. Faculty of Fine Arts Prince of Songkla University Pattani Campus Very much that did not give up still continuing to hold this event until successful Although we may be far apart and there is a big problem with the epidemic, but it does not hinder this event. I hope that this event is not the last event that we have together. But thought that there would be work and cooperation like this together again in the years to come. Thank you.

Message from the Dean of Faculty of Fine Arts Bunditpattanasilpa Institute

The 2nd National Conference of Art, Culture, and Design on the subject "Creative- Research-Innovations: The Important Factors to Improve Thailand" and the 2nd International Arts & Designs Collaborative Exhibition 2020 is made possible through the cooperation of the 4U PLUS network and aims to promote learning and experiences in creating art works. The activity aims to foster academic cooperation in the arts and design that will contribute to researches in the arts and creative works for national and international audiences. This collaboration will bring benefits to the society, particularly to enthusiasts of arts and design.

This cooperation towards the development of learning and the establishment of arts and design is in-line with Institute's vision to advance artistic knowledge to the society. This will give way to the development of a sustainable society that is consistent with the local society - which includes the environment, nature, the way of life, and culture. This important activity is a product of the collaboration of government and private sectors to promote and support the development of national culture societies and future human empowerment.

I would like to thank everyone for their unequivocal participation in achieving the goals of this endeavor and I sincerely hope that the cooperation we started here will continue to grow stronger.

Songkhla is a home

Digital, 42 x 59.4 cm

The LED LIGHT concept was inspired by night life culture in Thailand. The Gadang character, Songkhla map and Songkhla typography was highlighted in this work, to represent "Songkhla is a home" for the artist perspective. The idea of "GADANG" character was inspired by rumah gadang (big house) "house for the Minangkabau people". As a part of Minangkabau bloodline, Snooze as a graffiti artist would love to share/expend more of his creativity (GADANG) on his work.

Leaving Pottery
Oil on laser-cut wood,
2 panels 132 x 164 cm

Migrants leave their homeland to go live somewhere else; they have to reset completely their life and restart from zero in a new country. They are like fragments of ancient pottery Greek or Etruscan, typical of Mediterranean culture: leaving witnesses of a living civilisation. Each of us is a fragment searching for his lost entirety. Each of us is migrant, travelling down the ages.

Let's be Together Forever
 Digital, 42 x 59.4 cm

The creative word in the middle of the poster is a product synthesized from 5 Chinese words (但愿人久, meaning "let's be together forever"). In these hard times, everyone is looking forward to getting together though being separated by self-isolation, the policy, and worse still the dangerous disease. However, the word keeps everyone aware that "despite living apart, we are connected by the same MOON" (但愿人久千里共婵娟). A creative word speaks volumes.

Within 4 sqm

Printmaking (rubber cut to serigraphy) installation Cardboard boxes, dimensions variable (installation art)

Within 4 sqm by Helena B. Malinis explores printmaking as a medium to present a physical plot: a Filipino family of five below the poverty line, forced to live in a home they call "condominium unit," which is a confined, rented space made with scrap materials. The artist makes prints of maps in multiples on corrugated boxes which are then assembled to form an enclosed space, depicting that of a "condominium unit." The result represents the realities of poverty: unstable but livable, scarce but sufficient.

Jiang Jinjun (China)

In ancient China, Liu Xie once said, "When you look for something, your heart also shakes." I have always loved landscapes since I was a child. Therefore, I was always very excited when facing landscapes with mountains and water, so I was most willing to paint them. Come down. The majesty of the mountains, the agility of the water, and the rendering of clouds are the most beautiful movements between heaven and earth. This is not only my temperament, but also my interpretation of the spirit of traditional Chinese painting. In terms of techniques, I have adopted the "green" landscape painting method, grasping the relatively soft and beautiful hues, and cleverly interspersed with clouds, water and white space to complete the relaxed and romantic picture mood.
